

Free Legal Services for Youth in DCYF's Juvenile Rehabilitation facilities

Youth served by Juvenile Rehabilitation can receive free legal services through TeamChild. We provide advice, referral and legal help on issues like these:

- Conditions of Confinement: if a youth feels like there is something unfair or wrong with the way they are being treated while incarcerated in a JR institution or community facility.
- Post-disposition: if a youth feels like something was wrong with their trial or sentence
 - Sentence Clarification
 - Sex Offender Registration
 - Restitution and other Legal Financial Obligations
 - Juvenile Record Sealing
 - Appeals
 - Clemency
- Individual Rights: if a youth feels like there is a legal barrier to their success or needs a lawyer to understand and exercise their rights
 - Immigration
 - Family law/paternity
 - Name Change
- Reentry & Transition: if a youth needs help preparing and planning for release from JR
 - Housing
 - Employment
 - Public Benefits
 - Medicaid
 - Foster Care and Extended Foster Care
- Education: If a youth wants help getting access to education and instruction or needs more tailored and specialized educational support.

How to Get Help:

Anyone can make a request for TeamChild services. We accept referrals by:

- Phone: Call our TeamChild office in Seattle at (206) 322-2444 x 360 or toll free at (877) 295-2714.
- Email or Fax: Fill out the referral form on the back of this flyer and fax it to (206) 381-1742 or email it to jrinfo@teamchild.org.
- In person: Our JR Institutions and Reentry Project attorneys and staff will visit Green Hill School, Echo Glenn and Naselle every month, and community facilities once every three months. In person visits may be more frequent depending on cases we are working on.
